Managing the Library's Money

Managing the Library's Money

- Chapter 43.58 Powers and duties. (1) The library board shall have exclusive control of the expenditure of all moneys collected, donated or appropriated for the library fund...

Managing the Library's Money

- (2)(a) The library board shall audit and approve all expenditures of the public library and forward the bills or vouchers covering the expenditures, setting forth the name of each claimant or payee, the amount of each expenditure...to the appropriate municipal or county financial officer...The appropriate municipal, county, or school district official shall then pay the bill as others are paid.
  - NOTE: No further action is required by the municipal board for payment by the municipality

Managing the Library's Money

- Review and approval of all library expenditures
- Review and monitoring of monthly financial statements
- Develop policies for handling of gifts and donations
- Accurate financial reporting
- Review and approval of the budget draft
  - Does it provide adequate support for the library service goals?
  - Does it provide competitive wages to retain and recruit staff?

Managing the Library's Money— Developing the Library Budget

- Budget Development Process (Director and Key Staff)
  - Determine what the library hopes to accomplish next year
  - Determine financial resources needed for the next budget year
  - Draft budget document (Director and key staff)
  - Present Draft to Library Board for their approval

Managing the Library's Money— Developing the Library Budget

- Sources of Funding/Revenue (Public Funds that must be deposited with municipality)
  - Municipal Appropriation
  - County (ACT 150/420)
  - Fines and Fees (lost items/cards; room rental; copier; or printing fees)
  - Funds carried forward (under normal circumstances these funds should be nothing or very minimal)
    - Municipal/county appropriations or fines and fees revenue unspent from the prior year.
    - These funds should be budgeted for expenditure and not used to create a reserve
  - State Funds or Federal Funds, if any

County Funds

- The Library receives County Funds from:
  - Home County (ACT 150)
  - Adjacent Counties (Act 420)

County Funds

- Does the county payment to a municipal library for library services provided to non-residents of the municipality go to the library or the municipality's general fund?

Managing the Library's Money— Developing the Library Budget

- Present and Advocate for the budget
  - Create clear budget with little or no library jargon
  - Charts and other comparison information
  - Use format required by municipality
  - Present budget to appropriate committees and boards
  - Thank the committee and boards for their consideration of the library budget

Managing the Library's Money— Developing the Library Budget

- Sources of Funding/Revenue (Private Funds)
  - Donations, if known amount

Managing the Library's Money – Gift Funds

Chapter 43.58 (7)(b)

2. If a gift, bequest, or endowment is made to any public library, the library board may pay or transfer the gift, bequest, or endowment, or its proceeds, to the treasurer of the municipality or county in which the public library is situated; may entrust the gift, bequest, or endowment to a public depository under ch. 34; may pay or transfer the gift, bequest, or endowment to the library board's financial secretary; or may, subject to subd. 3., pay or transfer the gift, bequest, or endowment to a charitable organization, described in section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the purpose of which is providing financial or material support to the public library or to a community foundation. # Advocacy

- “Because public libraries have a unique place in local government, their needs may not be as readily understood by government officials as those of other units of government, and a greater effort is needed to tell the library story.”

Trustee Essential #13 <https://dpi.wi.gov/libraries/public-libraries/governance-administration/trustees>

Library Board and Library Personnel

Library Board and Library Personnel

- Library Board Hires and Evaluates Library Director
- Board establishes duties, compensation and personnel policies for all library staff
- Board provides financial support as part of the library budget for director and staff professional membership, conferences, continuing education and travel

Library Board and Library Personnel

- Director hires and supervises staff
- Director recommends changes to personnel policies and wages
- Director consults with Library Board on important personnel issues

Library Personnel—Director Evaluation

- Why Evaluate the Director
  - Provide formal feedback on job performance
  - Set goals for the upcoming year
  - Informs board about operation and performance of the library
  - Establish record of performance, in the event discipline or termination is needed
  - Review job description for possible revision

Library Personnel—Director Evaluation

- Who Should Evaluate the Director
  - Library Board or a personnel committee depending on the size of the board
  - Entire library board should review, discuss and approve final written evaluation
  - Can solicit formal written comments from staff with the knowledge of the director. (Note: The director was hired to manage daily operation of library and the chain of communication should flow from staff to director to board)

(Note: Staff may come to board for issues of harassment involving director)

Library Personnel—Director Evaluation

- What is the basis for evaluation
  - Written job description
  - List of goals and objectives developed the preceding year and agreed upon by the director and board
  - Success of library in carrying out services and the director's contribution to this success
  - Unanticipated factors or events that occurred during the prior year

Library Personnel—Director Evaluation

- How to conduct the evaluation
  - Director should complete self evaluation form which may or may not be part of permanent record
    - Helps to compare view of director and board for areas of agreement and resolve disagreements
  - Board President and Director should sign written evaluation after it has been reviewed and discussed with the director

Library Personnel—Director Evaluation

- How to conduct the evaluation
  - Use a consistent evaluation to provide benchmarks/targets from year to year
    - 3- or 6-month evaluation for new directors
    - Yearly after 12 months

Library Personnel—Director Evaluation

- Where to conduct the evaluation
  - Personnel evaluations should be conducted in closed session per Chapter 19.85

Library Personnel—Care and Feeding of the Library Director

- Provide consistent message to the Director
- Treat professionally
- Support continuing education needs
- Advocate for library needs
- Compensate fairly
- Check in
- Say thank you

Managing Facility

- 43.58 Powers and duties.
  - (1) The library board shall have exclusive control of the expenditure of all moneys collected, donated or appropriated for the library fund, and of the purchase of a site and the erection of the library building whenever authorized. The library board also shall have exclusive charge, control and custody of all lands, buildings, money or other property devised, bequeathed, given or granted to, or otherwise acquired or leased by, the municipality for library purposes

Managing Facility

- Preventative maintenance
- Safety issues
- Library image

Policy Development

- Director (and staff) develops recommended policies
- Board discusses, reviews/revises, and approves policies on a regular basis
- Policies need to be reasonable and legal
- Here are four tests of a legally defensible policy:
  - Test #1: Policies must comply with current statutes and case law.
  - Test #2: Policies must be reasonable (and all penalties must be reasonable).
  - Test #3: Policies must be clear (not ambiguous or vague).
  - Test #4: Policies must be applied without discrimination.

Library Planning

- Help guide budget and service decisions
  - Staffing
  - Programming
  - Collection
- Different models of planning but basically they are asking:
  - Where are we?
  - Where do we want to go?
  - How do we get there?
  - Are we getting there?

Library Planning

Long range planning should be a partnership between the library board and staff to ensure that both groups share common goals and mission for their community.

Library plan addresses community needs.

Share the plan with the stakeholders and community.

Does the budget support the plan of service?

Library Planning-- Programming/Services

- Is the library offering the right mix of programming?
  - Does current programming meet the needs of the community?
    - Board can provide input as representatives of the community
    - Director develops or delegates responsibility for program development
  - Is there sufficient staff and funding to provide the needed programming?
  - Are the programs attracting current and new users to the library?
  - Is programming a priority?

Library Planning

- Gathering information
  - Statistical data
    - Demographics
    - Usage
  - Community feedback
    - Surveys
    - Focus Groups
    - Community discussions

Library Planning--Staffing

- Does the library have enough staff?
- Are staff assigned to the proper duties?
- Does the library staff skill set match the needs of the library?

Advocacy and Working with Municipalities

Advocacy

- One of your major responsibilities as a public library trustee is to act as an advocate for the library.
- A library advocate is someone who understands the value and importance of public library service and who communicates that value and importance to the community, government leaders, and other decision-makers.
- Your primary function as a library advocate will be to provide clear, accurate, and timely information on library issues to people who need it in order to make sound decisions on those issues.

Advocacy--Ways to Act as an Advocate

- As an advocate, you can influence decision-makers by:
  - Speaking to civic groups about library needs and issues.
  - Talking to friends about the library, its role in the community, and its needs.
  - Writing letters to the editor of the local newspaper.
  - Testifying at local and state budget hearings.
  - Talking and writing to state and federal legislators about the needs of the library.
  - Contributing to a library newsletter that is sent to decision-makers.

Working with Municipalities

- Responsibilities of Municipal Government
  - Appoint Library Board
  - Pay library bills once approved by the library board
  - Appropriate funds for library budget

Working with Municipalities

- Tips for working with the municipal board
  - Have library presence at a variety of meetings not just at budget time
    - Provide regular updates and annual report about the library
  - Get to know the elected and appointed officials and their views/issues
    - Invite candidates to debate at the library
    - Hold open house for officials
    - Create common agenda with municipality

    - 5. If the annual sum appropriated by the county to the public library is equal to at least the annual sum appropriated to the public library by any municipality in which the public library is located, 5 additional members.

Open Meeting Law

- Contained in Chapter 19 General duties of public officials
- Meeting notice posted at least 24 hours in advance
  - Provided to the official local newspaper
  - Any news organization requesting a copy
  - Posted in one or more public locations (usually three locations)
    - Library
    - City/Village/Town Hall

Open Meeting Law

- Agenda
  - Time, date, place and all subjects to be discussed or acted upon
  - Can't use "other business" as agenda item
- Held in Accessible Location
- Provide accommodations if requested
- Minutes must be kept and made available to public

Open Meeting Law

- Meeting Quorum
  - Majority of board
  - Purpose to engage in business
  - Email Quorum
    - Can't make decision or influence decisions via email
    - Use email to distribute agenda; not for discussion or poll
  - Negative Quorum
    - If 2/3 vote is needed then a block of members that meet/discuss outside a meeting to oppose an item

Open Meeting Law

- Closed Session – limited reasons to go into closed session
  - Listed in Statute 19.85
    - Consider Employment, promotion, compensation, or performance evaluation data of any employee
      - For specific individual not general wage increases, compensation, or personnel policies
    - Consider dismissal, demotion or discipline of employee
      - Employee can request discussion be in open session

Open Meeting Law

- Closed Session – limited reasons to go into closed session
  - Listed in Statute 19.85
    - Deliberate purchase of public property
    - Confer with legal counsel
    - Others reasons but most often don't apply to libraries

Open Meeting Law

- Agenda must indicate any contemplated closed session, subject matter of closed session and the specific provision
  - 19.85 (1)(c) Considering employment, promotion, compensation or performance evaluation data of any public employee over which the governmental body has jurisdiction or exercises responsibility. Conduct Library Director Evaluation

Open Meeting Law

- Board must first convene in open session
- Announce intention to go into closed session
- Must state reason for going into closed session
- Requires a motion, second and roll call to go into closed session
- Attendance limited to board, necessary staff and others whose presence is needed

Open Meeting Law

- Discussion in closed session limited to stated agenda purpose
- Most if not all votes should be taken in open session
- Must notice that board will reconvene in open session.
- Legal penalties range from $25 to $300 per violation
- Actions can be voided if law violated

Public Records Law

- Must respond to requests
  - Don't have to be written requests
  - Can view or receive copies regardless of format
- Personnel Records
  - Balance test--public good versus privacy
  - Personal information like SS# can be removed
- Need record retention policy
- Staff Email
  - Personal emails not public per recent Supreme Court Ruling

Ethics and Conflict of Interest

- State Law Contained in Chapter 19
  - Code of Ethics 19.59
- Local Ethic Ordinances
- Public Contracts

Freedom of Speech

- Meeting Rooms
  - Can a public library's meeting room policy deny use for religious groups?
    - No. By making their meeting room available to local groups, the library has created a "designated public forum" and denial of use by religious groups would constitute a restriction on free speech.
  - Policy can include limits on the frequency of meetings, scheduling, and staff availability
